Logo of the North American KiMudo Association
The Dragon & Tiger represent our heritage

The North American KiMudo Association takes great pride and pleasure in awarding this CERTIFICATE OF RANKING Jesus Conzalez Elkhorn Flying Dragons Who, having purposed the study and practice of the art of KiMudo with constancy and diligence, and having successfully met the established standards and criteria for advancement, is qualified for as hereby awarded this certificate for FIRST DEGREE BLACK BELT In testimony whereby the North American Killican Association has issued this Certificate Eighth day of November, To We have hereunto subscrib

KiMudo

The kanji is the philosophy of NAKA and reads: "As you embark on your path, embrace where you are now and enjoy your journey, without limitations"

The Enso is a symbol of wholeness and completion, achieving their new rank. At the same time it represents cyclical nature of the students martial arts journey, continuing to their next rank

The student's "way"

The Stamp of the student's school