FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bio-Clean of New Jersey Renews Partnership with Philadelphia Seeds Program

Gloucester County, Greater Philadelphia Area: 1/19/2017

Bio-Clean of New Jersey has renewed its partnership with the The Philadelphia Seeds "Philly Seeds" program for 2017. Philadelphia seeds is a not for profit program that helps young and disadvantaged people acquire new vocational job skills. Andrew P. Yurchuck, Bio-Clean of New Jersey's chief executive stated: "Since our partnership began almost five years ago, Bio-Clean of New Jersey has donated almost $10,000 to education and vocational programs in the communities that we serve. I'm proud of our achievements over the last year." If you are interested in helping young people reach their career potential or helping Philadelphia Seeds with their mission please contact: Andrew P. Yurchuck, by e-mail at Crimescenenj@mac.com.
